TACTICA TO LIST ON COFUNDS

Tactica Fund Management has signed an agreement to list its three multi-asset funds on Cofunds, the UK's largest independent investment platform.

Tactica Fund Management was established at the start of 2006. Initially it aimed to service an international and mainly institutional client base, but as their reputation and track record have developed, they are now finding demand from a broader range of intermediaries.

Tactica currently offer a range of three strategies, Cautious, Balanced and Growth. Each fund offers a diversified portfolio which aims to maximise the potential of a broad range of asset classes which include global equities, fixed income, cash, commodities, currencies, property private equity and hedge funds managed within clear risk parameters. Investment management is provided by Goldman Sachs International.

John Ions, Tactica's Chief Executive, said "As we have become better known among investment oriented intermediaries, they have started to press us to make our funds available through Cofunds. This provides us with a highly effective and cost efficient route to servicing a wider range of firms. In the current investment climate, it is important that advisers have a range of diversified, risk controlled funds to offer their clients"

Russell Lancaster, Cofunds Director of Fund Manager Relations, said, "We are delighted to be offering yet another new asset manager to our clients. John Ions and his colleagues are well known to the IFA market and the design of their fund range and the reputation of Goldman Sachs is proving a very interesting offering.

One particular benefit for advisers is that through Cofunds individual investors can use these funds for their ISAs. Tactica have a high minimum investment of £25,000, well above the £7,200 ISA limit. Through Cofunds the minimum is £2,000.

Tactica's funds are also available through all Cofunds SIPP links as well so advisers can include them in holistically managed portfolios."
